

Shed Grounds Maintenance Ltd ("us", "we", or "our") have a Privacy Policy which explains our principles when it comes to the collection, processing, and storage of your information. This policy specifically explains how we, our partners, and users of our services deploy cookies, as well as the options you have to control them.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of data, stored in text files, that are stored on your computer or other device when websites are loaded in a browser. They are widely used to "remember" you and your preferences, either for a single visit (through a "session cookie") or for multiple repeat visits (using a "persistent cookie").

They ensure a consistent and efficient experience for visitors, and perform essential functions such as allowing users to register and remain logged in. Cookies may be set by the site that you are visiting (known as "first party cookies"), or by third parties, such as those who serve content or provide advertising or analytics services on the website ("third party cookies").

How we use cookies

We use cookies for several different purposes. Some cookies are necessary for analytical reasons; some enable a personalised experience for both visitors and registered users. Some of these cookies may be set when a page is loaded, or when a visitor takes a particular action (clicking the "like" or "follow" button on a post, for example).

For more information on the choices you have about the cookies we use, please see the Controlling Cookies section below.

Types of Cookie

The table below explains the types of cookies we may currently use or use in the future on our website and why we use them.

More information about Cookies

For more information on cookies, please visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org

Category of cookies	Why we use these cookies
Functionality	These cookies are used to store preferences set by users such as account name, language, and location.
Analytics and Performance	Performance cookies collect information on how users interact with our websites, including what pages are visited most, as well as other analytical data. We use these details to improve how our websites function and to understand how users interact with them.
Third Party / Embedded Content	Sites hosted on WordPress.com make use of different third-party applications and services to enhance the experience of website visitors. These include social media platforms such as Facebook and Twitter (through the use of sharing buttons), or embedded content from YouTube and Vimeo. As a result, cookies may be set by these third parties, and used by them to track your online activity. We have no direct control over the information that is collected by these cookies.
EU Cookie	Remembers the state of visitor acceptance to the EU Cookie Law banner (up to 180 days).

Controlling Cookies

Visitors may wish to restrict the use of cookies or completely prevent them from being set. Most browsers provide for ways to control cookie behavior such as the length of time they are stored – either through built-in functionality or by utilising third party plugins.

If you disable cookies, please be aware that some of the features of our website may not function correctly. To find out more on how to manage and delete cookies, visit www.allaboutcookies.org/
